A WORD FROM OUR DIRECTOR

Thank you for taking the time to get to know Villagio Travel & Tours. When we opened our doors in 2009, we set out to make travel simple, safe and enjoyable for every person who walked in, whether they were booking a single air ticket or planning a company retreat for a hundred staff.

Over the years we have learnt that great travel is about far more than tickets and hotel rooms. It is about being looked after: a call to confirm your pickup, a quick answer when a flight changes, and a plan that fits your budget instead of stretching it. That is the standard every member of our team works to.

Today Villagio is a destination management company licensed by the Tourism Regulatory Authority and a member of the Kenya Association of Tour Operators. Our work now spans leisure holidays, corporate travel, tailor-made safaris and ground handling across Eastern, Central and Southern Africa.

Whether you are a corporate client, an organisation planning an event or a family dreaming of a holiday, we would be glad to plan your next journey with you.

Who we are

ABOUT VILLAGIO

Villagio Enterprises, trading as Villagio Travel & Tours, is a Kenyan travel management company based at Suite 302, 3rd Floor, AACC Building, along Waiyaki Way in Westlands, Nairobi. We arrange business and leisure travel for corporates, government agencies, non-governmental organisations, schools, faith groups, families and individual travellers.

Our team handles every part of the trip in one place: flights, hotels, transfers, safaris, visas and events. Clients deal with a single point of contact who knows their preferences, follows up on every booking and stays reachable until they are safely home.

We are licensed by the Tourism Regulatory Authority (TRA) under the Ministry of Tourism and Wildlife, and we work both as a travel agency for outbound travellers and as a destination management company (DMC) for visitors arriving in Africa. Our multilingual guides, professional chauffeurs and experienced planners make every safari, beach break or city trip safe and seamless.
